How Shall I Woo Thee?

Paul Laurence Dunbar.

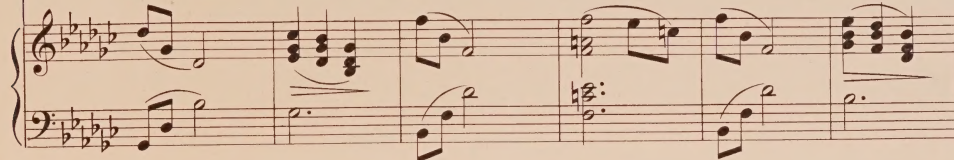

S. Coleridge-Taylor. Op. 17, No 7.

Allegro.

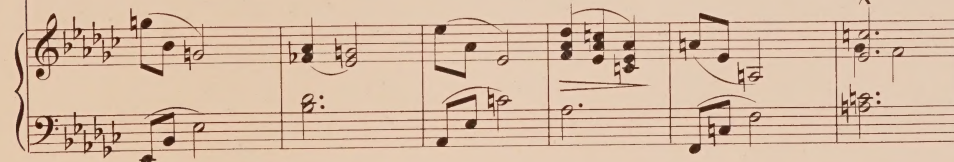

VOICE.  How shall I woo thee to

PIANO.  mp

win thee, mine own?— Say in what tongue shall I tell of my love.—

I who was fear-less so timid have grown,— All that was ea-gle has turn'd in - to dove. — The path from the mea-dow that leads to the bars Is more to me now f rall. than the path of the stars. How shall I woo thee to a tempo sempre And.

win thee, mine own. Thou who art fair and as far as the moon?

Had I the strength of the torrent's wild tone, Had I the sweetness of warblers in June; The strength and the sweetness might charm and persuade, But neither have I my petition to aid. How shall I woo thee to win thee, mine own? How shall I traverse the distance between My humble cot— and thy glo-rious throne?— How shall a clown gain the ear of a queen? f appassionato Oh teach me the tongue that shall please thee the best, For till I have won thee f dim. rall. my heart may not rest.
